

FedQuery Cost Action workshop Malaga JUNIO 26-28 MÁLAGA

How to get the Ada Byron Research Building

The ADA BYRON building is located in front of “Facultad de Ciencias de la Salud / Enfermería”, in the new area of the Campus de Teatinos (Ampliacion Campus de Teatinos) of the University of Málaga.

The location link in google maps is:

By taxi: from the airport (AGP Malaga Airport), it will take around half an hour (20€-25€), whereas from the city centre, the taxi will spend around 15 minutes (8€-10€).

By metro:

A direct (red) line (L1) which you can take from the city center – stops “Atarazanas” or “Guadalmedina” direction to “Andalucía Tech” – last station, where you should stop and walk 5 minutes to the ADA BYRON building (see the map of main locations below).

(see the Official Website <http://metromalaga.es/> & Metro at Google Maps: <http://goo.gl/Ntteh4>)

By bus: you need to take two buses (1.30€ each one, around 35-40 minutes total).

1. Line 11 - Take the first one in Alameda Principal bus stop (line 11) until Boulevard Louis Pasteur (terminal stop).
2. Line L – After stepping off bus 11, you can find the L stop by walking 50m, in front of the Hospital, in the “Escuela Técnica Superior de Ingeniería Informática” entrance.

You can query the EMT website of Málaga Buses for real-time information

Lunch in meeting days

The best option for having lunch during the meeting days is the canteen of Faculty of Health, just in front of the Ada Byron building. The menu is around 5€6 €

Hotels

Málaga is a very touristic place, and the city has many hotels. We recommend booking a hotel in the city center.

Some options are:

- Hotel Carlos V Málaga
